ONLINE COURSES! Fill Your Head, Not Your Gas Tank

Think about taking an online course this summer or fall! For more information about Distance Learning, visit: www.BrookhavenCollege.edu/DL.

Core Curriculum or Career Technical Education

Prepare to transfer to a four-year college or university with your "basics" or enter the workforce!

Join a Learning Community

Learning communities are linked courses that students take together. Students in learning communities are 20 percent more likely to pass, are less likely to withdraw, and earn a higher GPA than students in traditional courses.

University Students - Save Money!

Consider saving some money by taking a transferable online course through Brookhaven College while you're away at school.

Workforce and Continuing Education Programs Also Are Available!

For more information about our workforce education and corporate training, call 972-860-4600, e-mail bhcWCE@dcccd.edu, or visit our online course schedule.
