PURPOSE

The President's Round Table has authorized an annual census of African-American CEOs in community colleges (two year schools). For the sake of the Census, a CEO is defined as a person who has major responsibility and authority to operate a college system, a college, a large branch or a major educational unit where the most usual titles are Chancellor, President, Executive Dean, Campus President, Provost and so on.

METHOD

Each of the fifty states of the Country are listed and state totals are placed on the lines identifying each state.
