THE LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT INSTITUTE

In keeping with its mission, NCBAAs in collaboration with CCLDP presents the fifth annual Leadership Development Institute for African American Midlevel Administrators. The Institute prepares African Americans in community colleges for leadership roles and ensures that the “pipeline” to executive-level positions is “fluid.”

TARGETED AUDIENCE

- Deans, faculty, classified staff and others aspiring to leadership positions in community colleges
- Individuals transitioning from other fields into community college leadership positions
- Individuals in the CCLDP at Morgan State University

INSTITUTE STRUCTURE

The Institute will be conducted over a period of five days, beginning Monday, October 13, 2008 at 1:00 PM and ending at 1:00 PM on Friday, October 17, 2008. An interactive approach will be utilized to facilitate focused dialogues on community college issues pertaining to management and leadership styles and success strategies for upward mobility.

COLLABORATIVE PARTNERSHIP

THE NATIONAL COUNCIL ON BLACK AMERICAN AFFAIRS (NCBAA)
MORGAN STATE UNIVERSITY COMMUNITY COLLEGE LEADERSHIP DOCTORAL PROGRAM (CCLDP)

The NCBAAs and the CCLDP have complementary missions that provide the foundation for the collaboration and cooperation between the organizations. Therefore, their common mission and common audience unites two historically black entities in the training and development of leadership skills for African Americans in community colleges.
